Who Can Use Form 140A?

You can use Form 140A to file for 2007 if all of the following apply to you.

- You (and your spouse if married filing a joint return) are full year residents of Arizona.
- Your Arizona taxable income is less than $50,000, regardless of your filing status.
- You are not making any adjustments to income.
- You do not itemize deductions.
- The only tax credits you can claim are:
 - the family income tax credit,
 - the property tax credit,
 - the credit for increased excise taxes,
 - the Clean Elections Fund tax credit.
- You are not claiming estimated tax payments.

NOTE: If you are an active duty military member and required to file an Arizona return, DO not file Form 140A. For 2007, you may subtract all active duty military pay included in federal adjusted gross income. To take this subtraction, you must file your 2007 return using Form 140. For more information, see Form 140 instructions.

Do You Have to File?

Arizona Filing Requirements These rules apply to all Arizona taxpayers.
You must file if you are:	AND your Arizona adjusted gross income is at least:	OR your gross income is at least:
● Single	$ 5,500	$15,000
● Married filing jointly	$11,000	$15,000
● Married filing separately	$ 5,500	$15,000
● Head of household	$ 5,500	$15,000

If you are an Arizona resident, you must report income from all sources. This includes out-of-state income.

To see if you have to file, figure your gross income the same as you would figure your gross income for federal income tax purposes. Then, you should exclude income Arizona law does not tax.

Income Arizona law does not tax includes:

- Interest from U.S. Government obligations
- Social security retirement benefits received under Title II of the Social Security Act
- Benefits received under the Railroad Retirement Act
- Active duty military pay
- Pay received for active service as a reservist or a National Guard member

You can find your Arizona adjusted gross income on line 18 of Arizona Form 140A.

NOTE: Even if you do not have to file, you must still file a return to get a refund of any Arizona income tax withheld.

Do You Have to File if You Are an American Indian?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements unless all the following apply to you.

- You are an enrolled member of an Indian tribe.
- You live on the reservation established for that tribe.
- You earned all of your income on that reservation.

Enrolled members of American Indian tribes that must file a return may subtract wages earned while living and working on their tribe's reservation. If you are eligible to subtract these wages, you must file Form 140. In this case, do not file Form 140A.

To find out more, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 96-4.

Do You Have to File if You Are a Non-Indian or Non-Enrolled Indian Married to an American Indian?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements. For details on how to figure what income to report, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 96-4.

Do You Have to File if You Are in The Military?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements unless all the following apply to you.

- You are an active duty member of the United States armed forces.
- Your only income for the taxable year is compensation received for active duty military service.

Did You Know...

...most taxpayers who use this form are eligible for FREE E-File?

To see if YOU qualify log on www.azdor.gov

- There was no Arizona tax withheld from your active duty military pay.

If Arizona tax was withheld from your active duty military pay, you must file an Arizona income tax return to claim any refund you may be due from that withholding.

You must also file an Arizona income tax return if you have any other income besides compensation received for active duty military pay.

If you are an Arizona resident and you have to file an Arizona return, you should file using Form 140. If you were an Arizona resident when you entered the service, you remain an Arizona resident, no matter where stationed, until you establish a new domicile. As an Arizona resident, you must report all of your income, no matter where stationed. You must include your military pay, but using Form 140, you may subtract all compensation received for active duty military service, to the extent such income is included in your federal adjusted gross income.

If you are not an Arizona resident, but stationed in Arizona, the following applies to you.

- You are not subject to Arizona income tax on your military pay.
- You must report any other income you earn in Arizona. Use Form 140NR, Nonresident Personal Income Tax Return, to report this income.

To find out more, see Arizona Department of Revenue brochure, Pub 704, Taxpayers in the Military.

Residency Status

If you are not sure if you are an Arizona resident for state income tax purposes, you should get Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Procedure ITP 92-1.

Residents

You are a resident of Arizona if your domicile is in Arizona. Domicile is the place where you have your permanent home. It is where you intend to return if you are living or working temporarily in another state or country. If you leave Arizona for a temporary period, you are still an Arizona resident while gone. A resident is subject to tax on all income no matter where the resident earns the income.

Part-Year Residents

If you are a part-year resident, you must file Form 140PY, Part-Year Resident Personal Income Tax Return.

You are a part-year resident if you did either of the following during 2007.

- You moved into Arizona with the intent of becoming a resident.

- You moved out of Arizona with the intent of giving up your Arizona residency.

Nonresidents

If you are a nonresident, you must file Form 140NR, Nonresident Personal Income Tax Return.

What if a Taxpayer Died?

If a taxpayer died before filing a return for 2007, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative may have to file and sign a return for that taxpayer. If the deceased taxpayer did not have to file a return but had tax withheld, a return must be filed to get a refund.

The person who files the return should use the form the taxpayer would have used. If the department mailed the taxpayer a booklet, do not use the label. The person who files the return should print the word "deceased" after the decedent's name in the address section of the form. Also enter the date of death after the decedent's name.

If your spouse died in 2007 and you did not remarry in 2007, or if your spouse died in 2008 before filing a return for 2007, you may file a joint return. If your spouse died in 2007, the joint return should show your spouse's 2007 income before death, and your income for all of 2007. If your spouse died in 2008, before filing the 2007 return, the joint return should show all of your income and all of your spouse's income for 2007. Print "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she must also sign the return.

e-file e-File the return to receive the refund in as little as 5 days with direct deposit option.

Are Any Other Returns Required?

You may also have to file a fiduciary income tax return. For details about filing a fiduciary income tax return, call the department at (602) 255-3381.

Claiming a Refund For a Deceased Taxpayer

If you are claiming a refund, you must complete Form 131, Claim for Refund on Behalf of Deceased Taxpayer. Attach this form to the front of the return.

What Are The Filing Dates And Penalties? When Should You File?

Your 2007 calendar year tax return is due no later than midnight, April 15, 2008. File your return as soon as you can after January 1, but no later than April 15, 2008.

What if You Cannot File on Time?

You may request an extension if you know you will not be able to file on time.

NOTE: An extension does not extend the time to pay your income tax. For details, see the instructions for Arizona Form 204.

To get a filing extension, you can either:

1. Apply for a state extension (Form 204). To apply for a state extension, file Arizona Form 204 by April 15. See Form 204 for details. You do not have to attach a copy of the extension to your return when you file, but make sure that you check box 82F on page 1 of the return. If you must make a payment, use Arizona Form 204.
2. You may use your federal extension (federal Form 4868). File your Arizona return by the same due date. You do not have to attach a copy of your federal extension to your return, but make sure that you check box 82F on page 1 of the return.

To Find an Authorized E-File Provider near you log on www.azdor.gov

When Should You File if You Are a Nonresident Alien?

You must file your Arizona tax return by April 15, even though your federal income tax return is due on June 15. If you want to file your Arizona return after April 15, you must file for an extension by April 15. If you have a federal 6-month extension until December 15, 2008, Arizona will recognize the federal extension, but only for a period of 6 months from the due date of your Arizona return. So, if you are filing your Arizona return under a federal extension, you must file your Arizona return by October 15, 2008, even though your federal return will not be due until December 15, 2008. See Form 204 for extension filing details.

If you are a fiscal year filer, your return is due on the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of your fiscal year.

What if You File or Pay Late?

If you file or pay late, the department will charge you interest and penalties on the amount you owe. If the U.S. Post Office postmarks your 2007 calendar year return by April 15, 2008, your return will not be late. You may also use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the "timely mailing as timely filed" rule.

Late Filing Penalty

If you file late, the department will charge you a late filing penalty. This penalty is 4½ percent of the tax required to be shown on the return for each month or fraction of a month the return is late. This penalty cannot exceed 25 percent of the tax found to be remaining due.

Late Payment Penalty

If you pay your tax late, the department will charge you a late payment penalty. This penalty is ½ of 1 percent (.005) of the amount shown as tax for each month or fraction of a month for which the failure continues. The department will charge this penalty even if you have an extension. The department charges this penalty from the original due date of the return until the date you pay the tax. This penalty cannot exceed a total of 10 percent.

Extension Underpayment Penalty

If you file your return under an extension, you must pay 90 percent of the tax shown on your return by the return's original due date. If you do not pay this amount, the department can charge you a penalty. This penalty is ½ of 1 percent (.005) of the tax not paid for each 30 day period or fraction of a 30 day period. The department charges this penalty from the original due date of the return until the date you pay the tax. This penalty cannot exceed 25 percent of the unpaid tax.

NOTE: If you are subject to two or more of the above penalties, the total cannot exceed 25 percent.

Interest

The department charges interest on any tax not paid by the due date. The department will charge you interest even if you have an extension. If you have an extension, the department will charge you interest from the original due date until the date you pay the tax. The Arizona interest rate is the same as the federal rate.

When Should You Amend a Return?

If you need to make changes to your return once you have filed, you should file Form 140X, Individual Amended Return. You should file your amended return after your original return has processed. Do not file a new return for the year you are correcting. Generally, you have four years to amend a return to claim a refund.

If you amend your federal return for any year, you must also file an Arizona Form 140X for that year. You must file Form 140X within 90 days of the final determination of the IRS.

If the IRS makes a change to your federal taxable income for any year, you must report that change to Arizona. You may use one of the following two options to report this change.

Option 1

You may file a Form 140X for that year. If you choose this option, you must amend your Arizona return within 90 days of the final determination of the IRS. Attach a complete copy of the federal notice to your Form 140X.

Option 2

You may file a copy of the final federal notice with the department within 90 days of the final determination of the IRS. If you choose this option, you must include a statement in which you must:

1. Request that the department recompute your tax; and
2. Indicate if you agree or disagree with the federal notice.

If you do not agree with the federal notice, you must also include any documents that show why you do not agree.

If you choose option 2, mail the federal notice and any other documents to:

Entering Your Name, Address, and Social Security Number (SSN)

Lines 1, 2, and 3 -

NOTE: Make sure that you write your social security number on the appropriate line.

If your booklet has a peel-off label, use that label if all the information is correct. If any of the information on the label is incorrect, do not use the label. Attach the label after you finish your return. If you do not have a peel-off label, print or type your name, address, and SSN in the space provided.

If you e-File, you do not need a label.

If you are filing a joint return, enter your SSNs in the same order as your names. If your name appears first on the return, make sure your SSN is the first number listed. If you are a nonresident of the United States or a resident alien who does not have an SSN use the identification number (ITIN) the IRS issued to you.

For a deceased taxpayer, see page 2 of these instructions.

Use your current home address. The department will send your refund or correspond with you at that address.

NOTE: Make sure your SSN is correct. If you are filing a joint return, also make sure you list your SSNs in the same order every year.

Make sure that every return, statement, or document that you file with the department has your SSN. Make sure that all SSNs are clear and correct. You may be subject to a penalty if you fail to include your SSN. It may take longer to process your return if SSNs are missing, incorrect, or unclear.

- the federal employer identification number for the business

A paid preparer who fails to include the proper numbers may also be subject to a penalty.

Determining Your Filing Status

The filing status that you use on your Arizona return may be different from that used on your federal return.

Use this section to determine your filing status. Check the correct box (4 through 7) on the front of Form 140A.

Line 4 Box - Married Filing a Joint Return

You may use this filing status if married as of December 31, 2007. It does not matter whether or not you were living with your spouse. You may elect to file a joint return, even if you and your spouse filed separate federal returns.

You may use this filing status if your spouse died during 2007 and you did not remarry in 2007. See page 2 of these instructions for details.

The Arizona Form 140A is for full year residents only. You may not file a joint Arizona income tax return on Form 140A if any of the following apply.

1. Your spouse is a nonresident alien (citizen of and living in another country).
2. Your spouse is a resident of another state.
3. Your spouse is a part-year Arizona resident.

If filing a joint return with your nonresident spouse, you may file a joint return using Form 140NR. See Form 140NR instructions.

If filing a joint return with your part-year resident spouse, you may file a joint return using Form 140PY. See Form 140PY instructions.

For details on filing a joint return with your part-year resident or nonresident spouse, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 95-2.

You may file as head of household on your Arizona return, only if one of the following applies.

Line 6 Box - Married Filing Separately

You may use this filing status if married as of December 31, 2007, and you elect to file a separate Arizona return. You may elect to file a separate return, even if you and your spouse filed a joint federal return.

If you are filing a separate return, check the line 6 box and enter your spouse's name in the space provided. Also enter your spouse's SSN in the space provided.

Arizona is a community property state. If you file a separate return, you must figure how much income to report using community property laws. Under these laws, a separate return must reflect one-half of the community income from all sources plus any separate income.

When you file separate returns, you must account for community deductions and credits on the same basis as community income. Both you and your spouse must either itemize or not itemize. If one of you itemizes, you both must itemize. If one of you takes a standard deduction, you both must take a standard deduction. One of you may not claim a standard deduction while the other itemizes.

If you and your spouse support a dependent child from community income, either you or your spouse may claim the dependent. Both of you cannot claim the same dependent on both returns.

For details on how to file a separate Arizona income tax return, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Rulings ITR 93-18 and ITR 93-19.

NOTE: If you can treat community income as separate income on your federal return, you may also treat that community income as separate on your Arizona return. See Arizona Department of Revenue Ruling ITR 93-22.

If you are filing a separate return and your spouse is not a resident of Arizona, other special rules may apply. For more details, you should see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling, ITR 93-20.

Figuring Your Refund or Tax Due

Line 49 - Refund

e-file You can get your refund in as little as 5 days when you e-File and use direct deposit.

Subtract line 48 from line 36. Enter your refund on line 49 and skip line 50.

If you owe money to any state agency and certain federal agencies, your refund may go to pay some of the debt. If so, the department will let you know by letter.

Tax Tip: If you change your address before you get your refund, let the department know. Write to: Refund Desk, Arizona Department of Revenue, 1600 W Monroe, Phoenix AZ 85007. Include your social security number in your letter.

Direct Deposit of Refund

Complete the direct deposit line if you want us to directly deposit the amount shown on line 49 into your account at a bank or other financial institution (such as a mutual fund, brokerage firm or credit union) instead of sending you a check.

Why Use Direct Deposit?

- You will get your refund fast – even faster if you e-file!
- Payment is more secure since there is no check to get lost.
- It is more convenient. No trip to the bank to deposit your check.
- Saves tax dollars. A refund by direct deposit costs less to process than a check.

Tax Tip: You can check with your financial institution to make sure your deposit will be accepted and to get the correct routing and account numbers. The department is not responsible for a lost refund if you enter the wrong account information.

If you file a joint return and fill in the direct deposit line, you are appointing your spouse as an agent to receive the refund. This appointment cannot be changed later.

NOTE: The department is not responsible if a financial institution rejects a direct deposit. If the direct deposit is rejected, a check will be sent instead.

Routing Number

The routing number must be 9 digits. The first 2 digits must be 01 through 12 or 21 through 32. Otherwise, the direct deposit will be rejected and a check sent instead. On the sample check below, the routing number is 250250025.

Your check may state that it is payable through a financial institution different from the one at which you have your checking account. If so, do not use the routing number on that check. Instead, contact your financial institution for the correct routing number to enter here.

Account Number

The account number can be up to 17 characters (both numbers and letters). Include hyphens but omit spaces and special symbols. Enter the number from left to right and leave any unused boxes blank. On the sample check on the following page, the account number is 20202086. Be sure not to include the check number.

Filing Your Return

Before you mail your return, make a copy of your return. Also make a copy of any schedules that you are sending in with your return. Keep the copies for your records. Be sure that you file the original and not a copy.

To mail your return, use the envelope that came in your booklet.

To avoid delays, please use separate envelopes for each return.

Where Should I Mail My Return?

Forget about the mail and the late night run to the post office – e-File from the comfort of home.

If you are expecting a refund, or owe no tax, or owe tax but are not sending a payment, use the yellow address label attached to the envelope. If the envelope or label is missing, send the return to: Arizona Department of Revenue, PO Box 52138, Phoenix AZ 85072-2138.

If you are sending a payment with this return, use the white address label attached to the envelope. If the envelope or label is missing, send the return to: Arizona Department of Revenue, PO Box 52016, Phoenix AZ 85072-2016.

Make sure you put enough postage on the envelope.

With e-File, you do not have to worry if there is enough postage on the envelope. You even get notice that we received your return.

The U.S. Post Office must postmark your return or extension request by midnight April 15. A postage meter postmark will not qualify as a timely postmark. Only a postmark from the U.S. Post Office will qualify. You may also use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the "timely mailing as timely filed" rule.

How Long To Keep Your Return

You must keep your records as long as they may be needed for the administration of any provision of Arizona tax law. Generally, this means you must keep records that support items shown on your return until the period of limitations for that return runs out.

The period of limitations is the period of time in which you can amend your return to claim a credit or refund or the department can assess additional tax. A period of limitations is the limited time after which no legal action can be brought. Usually, this is four years from the date the return was due or filed.

In some cases, the limitation period is longer than four years. The period is six years from when you file a return if you underreport the income shown on that return by more than 25 percent. The department can bring an action at any time if a return is false or fraudulent, or you do not file a return. To find out more about what records you should keep, get federal Publication 552.

When to Expect Your Refund

Expect your refund in the mail within 8 weeks of the date you filed. If you have not received your refund by that time, contact one of the numbers listed on the back cover. Before you call, be sure to have a copy of your 2007 tax return available because you will need to know the first social security number shown on your return, the filing status, your 5 digit zip code and the exact whole-dollar amount of your refund.

Calling the Department

Your tax information on file with the department is confidential. If you want the department to discuss your tax matters with someone other than yourself, you must authorize the department to release confidential information to that person. You may use Form 285 to authorize the department to release confidential information to your appointee. See Form 285 for details.
